

BaCampionatoGP

4ª Edizione - 2010

The Black Angel Team announces the fourth edition of BaCampionatoGP, mode F1, that will be on Trackmania Nations Forever to coincide with the real 2010 Formula One Championship.

1. The Championship is reserved for Team of TM and therefore can not participate players without a club.
2. The team leader must connect to the site to register the team and drivers at the competition using the forms / sections. Should indicate the address of the site or the forum of his Team and its spokesman: one or two drivers with the addresses of msn / skype. Registration is completely free.
3. Registration for the tournament do not expire. Essential condition is that every pilot should use a unique login of Trackmania and the nickname to be used throughout the tournament. The login and the nickname should be write in the first registration.
4. Sub-teams are not allowed because there are no limits of players for Team.
5. From mid-March to mid November, in the week that the match will be played with the schedule of real Formula 1, in the server BaCampionatoGP2010 will be present the track of the tournament, lifelike replicas of real ones.
6. The afternoon / evening of Friday until 14:00 the following Monday, 24-hour 24, there will be an only track. During this period, identified as "qualifica", the server will be set in Time Attack mode.
7. The times will be recorded by Aseco and will be available directly from the game server, or from the website of the Black Angel Team and also with the indication of specific internet address.
8. The 30 fastest drivers, enrolled in the tournament, will attend the race on Monday.
9. The pilots who will be classified from 31st to 40th place, will be the "reserves". These pilots will take over, in order of ranking, instead of who, placed among the top 30, will be absent during the start of the race on Monday (22:00). In every case, all the "reserves" will participate in the race, and their placement in the race will be valid only if that will be justified by the absence of a pilot placed among the top 30 (in order of ranking of qualifications).

10. For pilots up to the 40th position of the classification of "qualifica" will be assigned the points indicated in the table on the side. The positions and the related points will be considered valid and assignable only if the pilot will be entered in the tournament by midnight of Sunday before the Monday of the race. The valid time will be those recorded by Aseco locally, with reference to the registered login.

11. At 21:45 on Monday, the participants of tournament will be able to connect to the server and at 22:00 the Grand Prix will be started. The "Gara GP" will be set Laps mode with a time allowing the competition to last approximately 40 minutes, the turns will be calculated based on the best time achieved in qualifying.
12. During the race there will be the "tires change". On screen, bottom right, there will be an indicator for the tires consumption and will be necessary "to pass" into the pits to simulate the change of tires, that is to reload the time (it is not the classical pit-stop but a drive-thru).
13. Also this year the checkpoints are placed contrary to direction. The restart from the checkpoint loses more time. It is better to pass from the pits. It is not allowed to run on the track at the opposite: to limit this phenomenon, a "step" has introduced to stop the car.

14. The end of the Grand Prix will be sanctioned as soon as the first pilot crosses the finish line. In the seconds immediately following will be made the screen that will certify the rankings of the race, after the control of individual members' login.

15. For pilots up to 30th position of the race will be recognized ranking of the points listed in the table on the side.
16. There will four rankings of the competition:
 - a. the "Pole Position Individual", represented by the sum of points obtained in "qualifica", considered that will be valid only the top 16 placings of each pilot (of 19 races currently scheduled).
 - b. the "Pole Position Team", represented by the sum of points obtained in all the races from the 3 best pilots of same Team during the all "Qualifica". For this ranking, the positions of pilots from 41st to 50th receive 1 point but only for the attribution to the Team (the pilot does not earn points).
 - c. the "GP Individual", represented by the sum of points obtained in the "Gara GP", considered that will be valid only the top 16 placings of each pilot (of 19 races currently scheduled).
 - d. the "GP Team", represented by the sum of points obtained in all the races from the 3 best pilots of same Team during the all "Gara GP".
17. The four rankings of race will establish the winners who will win the relative titles. The only winner of the "GP Individual" will win also the trophy by Team Black Angel, which will be announced later.

That said, this is an official invitation to participate to the fourth edition of BaCampionatoGP.
